New features on redesigned website

Our new CCX Media website launched March 15, representing all four sub-brands: News, Sports, Cities, and Create. While favorites like links to your YouTube channels, RueShare and all our social media platforms can still be found on CREATE's web pages, there are some exciting new features!

WATCH LIVE OR ON DEMAND?

With Video On Demand (VOD), viewers watch your show any time they want. To access VOD, search the Program Guide by channel or by show name. Email the VOD link to your guests and fans so that they can share it with their networks. Even if you have a YouTube channel, VOD is a flexible new viewing option!

Watching live online is still an option—look for the Watch Live links under the CCX2 and CCX3 channel headings in the Program Guide.

SIGN UP FOR CLASSES ONLINE

Need a class refresher? You can now register online for classes. Just look for the Free Classes link in the CREATE menu. TT

Studio remodel complete

Last we reported (way back in November!), nothing on the studio remodel list had been started. We are now done except for some finishing touches with branding! Here's what happened: painted Breakroom and Studio B, painted and carpeted hallways and edit and computer rooms, and reconfigured, painted and carpeted lobby and staff office areas. To see more than what's pictured in this newsletter, check out the photo album on our Facebook page (ccxcreate.org). We think, and hope you agree, that the refresh makes you all look really good in the eyes of your guests—nothing like a great first impression! TT

AFTER

Entering the building, you'll see new CCX Media signage.

You'll be greeted by Trudy at our more prominent reception desk.

The printer and copier are back home along with any supplies you might have grabbed from the former front desk.

Forms and handouts are available on the slatwall. You can post fliers there as well—just ask.

The computer and edit rooms got new signage; there'll be no missing where you're supposed to be!

govDELIVERY coming soon

This summer, CCX Create will join our fellow CCX Media departments by becoming a part of the GovDelivery email service. GovDelivery is a web-based email subscription system that allows residents to subscribe and receive informational emails about happenings at CCX Media. Perhaps you already receive updates sent out regularly by our News, Sports and Cities departments.

Because you are a member of CCX Create, we will be providing you with a subscription to this free service. You'll receive informational emails about classes, member news and updates, and programming highlights. You will also have the option to subscribe to email updates provided by our other departments. We promise not to flood your inbox with emails and you can unsubscribe from the service at any time.

CCX Media is committed to keeping community residents up to date on the programming opportunities, news, sports, and events in our area.

Watch your email for our launch of this service. BNC

Award winning staff and volunteers

Studio Manager Javie Cedillo recently attended the Wisconsin Community Media spring conference and returned home with three awards. Each year, the organization sponsors a Best of the Midwest Media Fest in conjunction with the conference. This year our staff was recognized with awards for each of our entries.

Each entry highlighted our organization AND our volunteer involvement. Our submissions were judged against entries from Wisconsin, Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Missouri, Nebraska and Kansas. Go CCX Create! BNC
